Certificate in Preparing to Work In Adult Social Care

Level 2 NCFE/CACHE

Recent statistics show that the number of jobs in adult social care was estimated at 1.63 million, but only 1.5 million people fill these available roles. Demand for adult social care is constantly increasing as people who use the services are living longer, meaning there is a rising need for quality providers of care. Have you ever considered how you might contribute to the care of vulnerable adults in society? This course prepares learners for any role within adult social care, in order to ensure the needs of vulnerable people continue to be met.

This qualification is suitable for those who are looking to work in, or widen their knowledge of, the adult social care sector. The course will give a learner knowledge of the responsibilities of adult social care workers, the diverse needs of the people using the services, and other important factors such as abuse and safeguarding.

Course content:

This course is split into nine manageable units:

Unit 1: Principles of communication in adult social care settings

Unit 2: Principles of personal development in adult social care settings

Unit 3: Principles of diversity, equality and inclusion in adult social care settings

Unit 4: Principles of safeguarding and protection in health and social care

Unit 5: Introduction to duty of care in health, social care or children's and young people's settings

Unit 6: Understand the role of the social care worker

Unit 7: Understand person-centred approaches in adult social care settings

Unit 8: Understand health and safety in social care settings

Unit 9: Understand how to handle information in social care settings

Each unit contains activities and assessments designed to cover the specific learning outcomes.
